REPORT ON COMMITTEES.

The report on State Missions was read by J. F. Mc-

Kibbon, and discussed by T. H. Smith and G. W. Riley, and adopted as follows:

REPORT ON STATE MISSIONS

We, your Committee on State Missions, beg leave to report: That this has been one of the most successful works in which the Baptists of our state have ever been engaged in. There has been a great deal of money raised, churches and Sunday schools organized, and yet there are many fields that we ought to occupy. There are others asking our help and to whom we have promised help, and to begin this work at an early day we need more money in our treasury. We do earnestly plead for the means for enlargement, that we may possess in the name of our Lord, the many places needing our care.

We have thirty missionaries employed; miles traveled 3,024; stations occupied, 115; sermons preached, 3,435: baptized, 544; number baptized by pastors where as-isted by missionaries, 619; Sabbath schools organized, 94; tracts distributed, 45,600 churches organized, 14.

Respectfully submitted.

CONCORD CHURCH.

REPORT ON PUBLICATIONS

The report on publication was read by A. B. Henderson and discussed by J. J. Gibson, J. L. Newman, A. J. Gaines, J. A. Killingsworth, and adopted as follows:

This is a day of books, periodicals, and papers. The press is a mighty power for good or for evil. It is pouring forth daily streams of literature that is moulding the sentiment and opinions of the people, as a religious force it is a factor for good in our denomination and is also one of the main elements of power that gives us sound reading which is a blessing in our homes, churches and committees. It is a source of much pleasure to have so many true and effectual papers representing the various interests of our denomination and we would recomended the Foreign Mission Journal and Home Field, published at Richmond, Va., the Convention Sabbath School Literature, published at Nashville, Ten. Our state organthe Baptist Record and the Baptist Layman. The Record is published at Meridian by J. A. Hackett and is truly the organ of our state convention, and should be more extensively circulated throughout the state and especially in the Calhoun association. The Layman, published at Winona by W. A. Hurt; is filling a long felt demand, and is of great service to our cause, and we recommend that pastors endeavor to supply the people with our denominational literature, such as books, tracts, and papers. This being an age of much reading. It is very important that every Baptist family should keep on hand and read good sound Baptist literature. Respectfully submitted,

A. B. HENDERSON,
J. H. POWELL,
J. L. ROANE,
Committee.

Adjourned for preaching,

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The association met and was called to order by the Moderator. Prayers by Terry Box.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

The report on Foreign Missions was read by T. H. Smith and discussed by T. H. Smith, G. W. Riley, J. J. Gibson J. L. Newman and adopted as follows:

The commission that Christ gave to his disciples was: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature"

We understand from this that the duty of the first ministers was to preach the good news of salvation wherever they found sinners, and as all persons who have not accepted Christ as their personal savior are lost, as Paul tells in Rom 3, 9, that has "before proved both Jews and Gentiles that they are under sin." This being true and as "Christ is the end of the law for righteousness, we find no way out of this matter but to follow the commission and go and preach this gospel as commanded. The Foreign Mission board is doing work in five different countries. 1st. Europe. 2nd. Asia. 3rd. South America. 4th. Mexico 5th. North America. In Italy where the Pope, the head of the Catholic Church lives, we have G. B. Taylor, J. H. Eager and wife and fourteen native assistants and sixteen preaching stations. In Brazil we have nineteen missionaries and ten mission stations. In Mexico we have thirty missionaries and one native assistant and thirteen stations. In China we have forty-one missionaries and twenty-one assistants. Japan which is our youngest and smallest mission, we have four missionaries and two stations. In Africa we have four missionaries and five native assistants, with a membership of 116. Taking into consideration the vast number of human souls who have no chance to hear the gospel and the great number who are yearly going into eternity without God and without hope, we feel that we, as a denomination, should awake and stand forth as one grand army and carry the war into the regions beyond.

Respectfully submitted,
T. H. SMITH,
S. R. HENDERSON,
J. A. DAVIS,
Committee.

REPORT ON WOMAN'S WORK.

The report on Woman's Work was read by A. T. Smith and discussed by A. T. Smith and G. W. Riley and adopted as follows:

The church has heard the voice of God. She has shaken herself from the dust and loosened herself from her bonds. Never in the history of the state, has there been put forth so much effort to spread the gospel at home and abroad.

This increase is due largely to the efforts of Woman's Missionary societies. During the centennial year they contributed $47,000 and distributed 42,000 tracts. Your committee believes that they are doing a grand and glorious work in their own way.

Respectfully submitted,
A. T. SMITH,
EDGAR BARTON,
W. T. WARD,
Committee.

Prayer by J. A. Killingsworth.
Adjourned to 8:30 o'clock Friday morning.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Association met and was called to order by the Moderator. Prayer by J. F. McKibbon.

REPORT ON MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE AND EDUCATION.

The report of Mississippi College and Education was read by J. A. Killingsworth and discussed by J. L. Newman G. W. Riley, T. H. Smith, J. A. Killingsworth, J. J. Gibson and adopted as follows.

Mississippi College is owned and controled by the Baptist of the state. Every Baptist of the Calhoun association has a joint interest in this institution of learning equal to any other Baptist in the state. It is an institution founded for the higher education of the boys and young men of the country, and the advancement of the Redeemer's Kingdom. There were matriculated in this school last year, 229 students and of this number thirty-three were ministrial students who were aided more or less by contributions from the churches. The college buildings are needing some repairs and it is estimated that it will take $1,000 to do this work. We should help in this work. A contribution of a little over one cent from each Baptist in the state will do this work.

We should not only aid the college by our contributions but we should send our boys there to be educated. There is no school in the state that offers better advantages than Clinton College. The faculty is composed of consecrated christian men, whose moral and literary qualities are not to be excelled by any. Our growth and development as a denomination in the state demands that we rally to the support of our college and that we use every means possible to send our boys there to prepare for their life work.

Besides Clinton college, we have several private institutions of learning that are doing a noble work, namely: Blue Mountain Female College, Carrollton Male and Female College, Easford College, Gillsburg College Institute, Hillman College, McComb City Institute and Stones College. All these are noble institutions of learning that are worthy of our patronage.

We should not only look after the education of our sons, but we should also devote as much time and money in the education of our daughters also, who will no doubt do more to mould the moral and religious status of future generations than the boys. Respectfully Submitted.

J. A. KILLINGSWORTH,
C. C. HILL
A. T. BRYANT,
Committee.

Adjourned for preaching.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Association met and was called to order by the Moderator. Prayer by J. L. Roane.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The report on Sabbath Schools was read by T. H. Smith and discussed by Henry Hardin, J. L. Newman, J. A. Killingsworth, A. A. Bruner, A. J. Gaines, and adopted as follows:

That it is the duty of parents and all church members, to take the Bible to their children, and all others who may in any way be thrown under their care, is plainly set forth in the Scriptures, Deut. 31, 12-13. Moses said, "Gather the people together, men and women, and children, and the stranger that is within thy gate, that they may hear and that they may learn and fear the Lord your God, that their children which have not known anything may hear and learn to fear the Lord your God as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordon to possess it." Now, if it was the duty of Israel to teach their children, they who were a type of the true Spiritual Israel, it is not our duty to teach ours: 2 Tim. 3. 14-15, Paul says, "Continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast been assured of. Knowing of whom thou hast learned them. And that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make the wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Respectfully submitted,

G. H. HANNAFORD,
HENRY HARDIN,
T. E. DENLEY.
Committee.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The report on Temperance was read by S. E. Wallace, and discussed by J. L. Newman, J. J. Gibson, A. J. Gaines, T. H. Smith, and adopted.

We are required to be temperate in all things. Temperance may be defined as a moderate and proper use of these things which are necessary for the comfort and enjoyment of man, but we should abstain use of those things which are injurious and tend to evil. As Christians we should be temperate in eating, sleeping and working, in regard to drinking intoxicating liquors, we find the safest and best course is to abstain altogether, and we believe it to be our duty to use all proper influences within our power to bring about total abstinsnce.

Respectfully submitted,

S. E. WALLACE,
LEE NEAL,
W. A. LANCASTER.

REPORT ON NOMINATIONS.

Your committee on Nominations would recommend J.

A. Killingsworth to preach the Introductory Sermon at our next meeting and Lee Linder as alternate and further recommend M. D. L. Howell, W. B. Ross and H. W. Seals for the Executive Board.

Respectfully submitted,
L. W. HARRELSON,

C. C. HILL.
